Cornerstone Financial Education

Cornerstone Financial Education is a national nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization providing financial education, counseling, and debt management to consumers who want to get out of debt. Cornerstone Financial Education is dedicated to empowering consumers by offering quality financial education focusing on the sound use of credit and providing effective debt management by means of credit counseling, housing counseling, foreclosure counseling, and personal budgeting. We provide all of our services regardless of a person's age, gender, race, religion or financial background.
