CODE OF ETHICS

As members in good standing of the Southern Utah Home Builders Association, we believe in, and accept, the responsibilities and obligations inherent in the following Code of Ethics. Basic to these ethical beliefs, we subscribe to the following principles:

- To conduct business affairs with professionalism and honesty.
To protect the consumer through the use of quality materials and construction practices.
To meet all financial obligations in the responsible manner.
To comply with the spirit and letter of business contracts, and manage employees, subcontractors and supplier with fairness.
To act responsibly, with due care, diligence, and to the best of my ability, without misrepresenting or omitting material facts or allowing my independent judgment to be subordinated.
To keep informed regarding public policies and other essential information, which affect business interests and those of the building industry as a whole.
To comply with the rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies.
To provide timely response to items covered under warranty.
To seek to resolve controversies through a non-litigation dispute resolution mechanism.
To provide the association with accurate, complete, objective, and timely information.
To proactively promote ethical behavior among other Directors, Officers and Members of the Association.
To respect the confidentiality of information acquired in the course of my duties as a volunteer member of this association.
To support and abide by the decisions of the association in promoting and enforcing this Code of Ethics.

Members assume the responsibilities in this Code of Ethics freely and solemnly and are mindful that these responsibilities are a part of their obligation as members of the Southern Utah Home Builders Association.

If elected to membership I/We hereby agree to abide by the Code of Ethics and by the policies of the Southern Utah Homes Builders Association.
